Director, XOPA AI*

AI, a global leader in ethical AI-powered recruitment software, announces its participation as a sponsor at the 13th Annual GCC GOV HR & Youth Summit & Awards 2025, taking place October 22–23, 2025, at the Grand Hyatt Abu Dhabi Hotel & Residences Emirates Pearl.

The two-day summit brings together the region's most influential HR leaders, government officials, and technology pioneers to drive meaningful transformation in talent acquisition and workforce development across the GCC.

Executive Leadership Presence

XOPA AI's participation will feature prominent contributions from key executives:

Nina Alag Suri, Founder and CEO of XOPA AI, will share insights alongside the region's most influential leaders, contributing to transformative conversations on workplace excellence and HR innovation.

Prashanth (Prash) Sundaram, Country Head Singapore, will moderate a critical panel discussion titled “Beyond the CV: Ethical AI & Skills-Based Hiring to Future-Proof Public Sector Workforces.”

The session will explore:

- Building skills-first hiring models that move beyond outdated degree-driven criteria to role-based skills taxonomies aligned with real-time public sector capability needs
- Implementing ethical and explainable AI in talent acquisition to remove bias, enhance fairness, and ensure transparent, accountable decision-making at scale

- Global case insights from Singapore's civil service and AI hiring platforms, showcasing impact on diversity, speed, and talent quality
- Future-proofing workforces by preparing HR teams for AI-powered hiring ecosystems through upskilling and inclusive practices

Live Demonstrations at Booth S1

Summit attendees are invited to visit XOPA AI at Booth S1 for exclusive live demonstrations of the company's recruitment software platform. The demonstrations will showcase how ethical AI is revolutionizing talent acquisition across government agencies, public sector organizations, and enterprises worldwide.

"We're excited to connect with visionary leaders driving the future of workforce transformation in the GCC," said Amit Anand, Marketing Director, XOPA AI. "This summit provides an ideal platform to demonstrate how responsible AI can strengthen workforce strategies and transform hiring processes across the public sector."
