About The Book:

In Vanish and Warden, Bradley Fisher introduces readers to an unforgettable story of opposites colliding, where heroism and villainy are no longer black and white.

Vanish, the city's most elusive thief with the power of invisibility, has made a life out of slipping away unseen. But when his latest mission is interrupted by Warden, a charming, iron-willed hero who refuses to let him go, everything changes. What begins as a thrilling chase quickly turns into something far more dangerous—a connection neither of them can resist.

As their worlds intertwine through stolen glances, secret deals, and late-night confessions, Vanish and Warden are forced to question everything they know about loyalty, morality, and the meaning of love. With sparks flying and hearts on the line, they soon realize that the greatest battle isn't between hero and villain—it's between fear and truth.

Equal parts thrilling and tender, Vanish and Warden redefine the superhero genre with sharp wit, emotional honesty, and a romance that refuses to stay hidden.
