International Consulting Group, Inc. (EMMA International), a leading global consulting firm specializing in FDA compliance and management consulting solutions, proudly announces the launch of its Franchise Program, an initiative designed to expand EMMA International's reach while empowering entrepreneurs to own and operate their own life sciences consulting businesses under the EMMA International brand.

Recognized on the Inc. 5000 list at #404 nationwide as one of the fastest-growing consulting firms in the life sciences sector, EMMA International has built its success on a foundation of quality, compliance, and operational excellence. With an impressive project success rate, the firm serves a diverse range of clients in the pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and medical device industries—delivering tailored solutions to help organizations navigate complex regulatory landscapes.

By franchising with EMMA International, partners gain access to a turnkey business model, comprehensive training, and ongoing operational and marketing support. Franchisees will benefit from EMMA International's established reputation and proven methodologies, allowing them to quickly build credibility and scale in the rapidly growing life sciences consulting market.

“Joining EMMA International as a franchisee means stepping into a proven model of success backed by a globally recognized brand in life sciences,” said Carmine Jabri, CEO of EMMA International. “We empower our franchise partners with the tools, expertise, and resources they need to thrive while giving them the independence to grow their own business.”

The launch of EMMA International's Franchise Program represents a milestone in the company's mission to make high-quality compliance and regulatory expertise accessible worldwide. By creating a global network of franchise partners, EMMA International is expanding its ability to support innovation, accelerate growth, and enhance compliance across every corner of the life sciences industry.
