ILLFEST STAGE

The most visually immersive realm, ILLfest transforms its stage into a living gallery, merging sound and street art in real time. World-class muralists will paint massive installations live across the weekend, while genre-bending sets move seamlessly from lush grooves to mind-warping bass. It's the ideal setting for those who value creativity as much as music.

On the more colorful and groove-laced end of the spectrum, Surf Mesa brings airy, feel-good vibes to the forest canopy, while Tony Romera's forward-thinking house cuts and SOSA's peak-time minimalism push the dancefloor into overdrive. Techno tastemaker Luuk Van Dijk rounds out the eclectic curation with his signature blend of deep textures and infectious rhythm.
