

Multi-GRAMMY® Nominated Recording Artist David Arkenstone Announces 'A Winter's Eve' Holiday Concert in Palm Springs, CA

One Night Only at Revolution Stage Company—ignite your holiday spirit! Tickets on sale now. This benefit concert is part of a 16-date/4-state tour.

PALM SPRINGS, CA, UNITED STATES, October 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Five-time GRAMMY®-nominated composer, performer, and multi-instrumentalist David Arkenstone proudly rolls into Palm Springs this holiday season for A Winter's Eve with David Arkenstone and Friends for one night only on Monday, December 15, 2025, at Revolution Stage Company. This festive concert experience blends beloved holiday classics reimagined, lively seasonal originals, and joyful surprises that will invite the audience to clap along and celebrate the season together.

A Winter's Eve with David Arkenstone & Friends 2025

On stage, David and his ensemble create a vibrant holiday soundscape that blends neo-classical crossover, new age, Celtic, orchestral, and world music. The festive atmosphere and virtuoso musicianship set the tone for a magical night. As with any David Arkenstone holiday concert, expect a rich palette of instruments—guitars, keyboards, flutes, violin, cello, mandolin, bass, viola, drums and percussion—and his world-class international band that brings the musical spirit of the season to life.

"Each winter I try to paint the season in sound," says Arkenstone. "This concert is a joyful gathering—familiar carols and festive new pieces that bring people together to share the excitement and wonder of the holidays."

This enchanting evening of A Winter's Eve with David Arkenstone & Friends, in association with Nickel City Opera West, benefits the debut of Mona Lisa Missing! The Musical! at Revolution Stage Company in spring 2026. Fresh from wowing audiences at the Hollywood Fringe Festival, Mona Lisa Missing! The Musical! dazzles with singing, can-can, intrigue, colorful characters, and irresistible melodies set in 1911 Paris.
