

Icarus Behavioral Health Nevada Announces its Accredited Gambling Rehab and Resources for Problem Gamblers Nationwide

Icarus Behavioral Health Nevada now offers gambling addiction treatment and resources for problem gamblers across the United States.

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Icarus Behavioral Health Nevada has announced the expansion and recognition of its dedicated gambling addiction treatment program, designed to support individuals and families affected by problem gambling across the state.

With Las Vegas recognized globally as a hub for gaming and entertainment, Icarus has taken a leading role in offering evidence-based treatment, compassionate care, and practical resources to help Nevadans regain control of their lives.

The effects of gambling addiction often extend well beyond the individual, with issues related to gambling impacting families and loved ones emotionally and financially. Spouses and children may face stress, mistrust, or instability as a result of secretive or compulsive behaviors.

“Our goal is to provide meaningful recovery opportunities that reach beyond abstinence, to help individuals rebuild relationships, restore financial stability, and reclaim peace of mind,” said a spokesperson for Icarus Behavioral Health Nevada. “Problem gambling is often accompanied by anxiety, depression, and substance use, and our integrated approach ensures that every client receives comprehensive support tailored to their needs.”

The Icarus gambling program incorporates cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT), financial recovery planning, and group therapy that emphasizes peer accountability and community rebuilding.
