

Richard Tyler Receives 16th EXPY® Award for Broadway Production When My Soul Speaks

Globally acclaimed CEO and producer of Emmy®-nominated documentaries honored for landmark theatrical debut starring Lisa Nichols.

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, October 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Richard Tyler, CEO of Richard Tyler International, Inc.®, best-selling author, producer of Emmy®-nominated documentaries, and Broadway producer, was honored with his 16th EXPY® Award at the prestigious ceremony held at the Beverly Hilton in Beverly Hills, California.

The award recognizes Tyler's Broadway debut production, When My Soul Speaks: Live on Broadway with Lisa Nichols, which premiered to a sold-out audience at the Samuel J. Friedman Theatre on Broadway in New York City on December 9, 2024. The production united Emmy®-winning talent with one of the world's most renowned motivational voices, Lisa Nichols, in a transformative theatrical experience that inspired audiences and critics alike.

The Red-Carpet interview, conducted by actress and correspondent Ashley Chaney, captures Tyler's reflections on the creative journey, the power of storytelling, and the enduring impact of When My Soul Speaks. Television personality Bob Guiney served as Master of Ceremonies for the EXPY® Awards segment, adding to the evening's celebration of excellence across industries.

"This award represents more than a production, it's a testament to the power of purpose-driven storytelling," said Tyler. "Lisa Nichols brought her soul to the stage, and together we created a moment that will echo for generations."

The full Red-Carpet interview is now available on Vimeo, offering a rare glimpse into the mind of a visionary leader whose work continues to redefine achievement, artistry, and legacy.
