Dornbracht, the leading premium fittings manufacturer, is proud to announce its participation in the newly reimagined Fisher & Paykel New York Experience Center.

Coming off the success of Fisher & Paykel's first Canadian Experience Centre in Toronto earlier this year, the recently redesigned New York Experience Center by the Fisher & Paykel Design Team and Schiller Projects reflects the New Zealand brand's ethos of luxury design inspired by nature. Within this immersive environment, Dornbracht products are showcased as part of a holistic vision of elevated living, celebrating innovation, craftsmanship, and timeless design.

"In collaborating with Dornbracht, we found a partner whose timeless form and enduring quality align seamlessly with our design ethos," says Xanthe Whiteley, Senior Brand & Experience Designer. "Their refined craftsmanship and finishes allow their faucets to integrate effortlessly across each distinct kitchen environment within the Experience Center, complementing a space that is highly considered, deeply functional, and reflective of the character and craft of New York City."

Located in the A&D Building, one of Manhattan's premier design destinations, the Fisher & Paykel New York Experience Center offers designers, architects, and homeowners the opportunity to experience exceptional brands and their latest offerings in a bespoke, luxury setting.
