This year's theme, “Building India's Future Together: The Next Frontier in Learning and Assessment,” highlights the urgent need for forward-thinking, secure, and inclusive assessment systems designed to empower learners and organizations alike.

“I-ATP 2026 represents an exciting moment for collaboration and innovation in India's assessment landscape,” said G. Harris, CEO of ATP-Global. “By bringing together experts across sectors, we're building connections and solutions that will strengthen access, fairness, and quality in learning and testing.”

The 2026 India-ATP Conference will feature expert-led sessions, panel discussions, and collaborative conversations focused on five key areas driving India's next chapter in assessment:

Evolving Assessment Foundations: reaffirming fairness, reliability, validity, and psychometric rigor

AI in Assessment: leveraging generative AI to enhance exam development and ensure trust

Security in the Age of AI: designing assessments with next-generation test security in mind

Inclusion & Human-Centric Design: creating accessible, skill-based, and equitable delivery models

Ethics, Data & Decision-Making: navigating the responsible use of AI and data in education and employment

There is no fee to register for I-ATP 2026.

Registration, sponsorship opportunities, and program details are available on the official conference website: <https://i-atp.in>
