The summit will bring together veteran business leaders from across the region for an afternoon of expert-led sessions, networking opportunities, and practical guidance on critical business topics. Attendees will gain insights from industry leaders representing both legal and financial sectors, specifically tailored to the unique challenges and opportunities facing veteran-owned businesses.

Event Highlights Include:

- Financing Solutions – John Ashkar, Director, Business Banking and James Estep, Director, Commercial Lending at John Marshall Bank, will discuss financing options to support business growth for companies at every stage, from startup to expansion.
- Legal Considerations – Wright Lewis, Partner, Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig, will address critical legal frameworks and considerations for businesses navigating the journey from startup through exit.

- Veteran Business Certifications – John Moliere, CEO, Standard Communications, Inc. will give expert guidance on obtaining veteran-owned business certifications and leveraging government contracting opportunities.

- Panel Discussion – Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig Trust & Estate attorneys will lead an in-depth discussion on business succession planning and estate planning strategies to protect and preserve business legacies.

The event will also feature dedicated networking sessions at 12:00 PM and 2:00 PM, providing attendees valuable opportunities to connect with fellow veteran entrepreneurs, build strategic partnerships, and expand their professional networks.

"As a veteran-owned firm, we understand the unique strengths that veterans bring to entrepreneurship – discipline, leadership, adaptability, and mission focus," said Wright Lewis, Partner, Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig. "This summit is our way of giving back to the veteran business community by providing access to the legal and financial resources that are essential for long-term success."

"John Marshall Bank has a longstanding commitment to supporting the veteran community and small businesses throughout the region," said John Ashkar. "We're honored to partner with Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig to provide veteran entrepreneurs with the financial knowledge and resources they need to take their businesses to the next level."

The Veteran Business Summit is free and open to veteran business owners, aspiring veteran entrepreneurs, and organizations that serve the veteran community. Space is limited, and advance registration is required.
