A Memorable Performance in Fredericksburg's Leading 55+ Community

Residents and guests enjoyed an uplifting afternoon filled with music, dance, and heartfelt storytelling. The children of Matsiko delivered a spirited program that not only entertained but also deeply touched the audience. After the performance, choir members shared lunch with residents, creating meaningful one-on-one connections—an experience that embodies Jubilation's commitment to fostering community and belonging.

Matsiko World Orphan Choir: A Global Mission of Hope

Founded in 2008, the Matsiko World Orphan Choir brings together orphaned and vulnerable children from around the world to share stories of resilience through music. Their mission is to use the unifying power of song to uplift children, inspire generosity, and provide full educational scholarships that open doors to brighter futures. With past performances at the White House, Rose Bowl, Disney parks, and major sports stadiums, Matsiko continues to inspire audiences of all sizes.

For the children, visiting communities like Jubilation is among their most treasured experiences, offering personal connection and encouragement from supportive audiences.

About Jubilation by Silver Companies
