8 October 2025 (Singapore) – StarDream Cruises, home to the iconic StarCruises and Dream Cruises brands, proudly announces its double victory at the Travel Weekly Asia 2025 Readers' Choice Awards held in Singapore, earning top accolades for "Best Cruise Line – Asia" and "Best Cruise Line – Entertainment."

This recognition marks another milestone for the cruise line, extending its winning streak since its inception in 2022. Over the years, StarDream Cruises has been honoured for its excellence in the "Cuisine" and "Entertainment" categories (2022 & 2023), as well as last year's accolades for "Asia Pacific" and "Cuisine". The continued success underscores the brand's growing leadership, innovation and enduring excellence in Asia's cruise industry.

"We're deeply honoured to be recognized once again by the travel industry and readers across Asia," said Michael Goh, President of StarDream Cruises. "With 30 years of deep-rooted Asian heritage and valuable experience in the region and beyond, these awards are a reflection of our crew's unwavering dedication, our partners' trust, and our shared passion to redefine cruising with the best of Asian hospitality and world-class entertainment."

Since its inception, StarDream Cruises has built a strong reputation for its immersive regional itineraries, exceptional onboard experiences and commitment to delivering memorable voyages for travellers across Asia.

Under the Dream Cruises brand, its flagship Genting Dream continues to homeport in Singapore, with additional embarkation options from Kuala Lumpur (via Port Klang) and Melaka for select sailings in 2026. Guests can look forward to 2, 3, 4 and 5 Night Cruises to exotic Southeast Asian destinations including Thailand (Phuket, Koh Samui & Bangkok), Malaysia (Penang, Kuala Lumpur, Melaka & Pulau Redang) and Indonesia (Bali).

The StarCruises brand continues to strengthen its regional footprint with Star Voyager and Star Navigator. Star Voyager currently sails from Hong Kong, offering 2, 3, and 5 Night Cruises to captivating destinations across East and Southeast Asia, including Okinawa, Kaohsiung, Penghu, Sanya, Vietnam and the Philippines. She will homeport in Singapore from late November 2025, with additional embarkation options from Kuala Lumpur (via Port Klang) starting December 2025, offering 3 and 4 Night sailings between both cities with stops at Penang, Pulau Bintan and Phuket.

In addition, Star Navigator continues to offer departures from Keelung and soon from Kaohsiung for select sailings, with expanded 2, 3, 4 and 5 Night itineraries in 2026 across Kyushu, Shikoku and Honshu in Japan, as well as South Korea, including her first-ever 7 Night voyage to Tokyo.

Continuing its legacy of innovation, StarDream Cruises continues to elevate cruising with creative entertainment, authentic Asian hospitality, and refined service standards. This festive season, guests can enjoy special collaborations including "The Smurfs Dream at Sea" on Genting Dream (21 Nov 2025 – 20 Jan 2026) and "Cookin' Nanta" - The Korean Non-Verbal Performance at Sea" on Star Navigator (19 Oct – 28 Nov 2025).
