"Our program will help local healthcare employers better serve their communities, while allowing students to graduate debt-free and begin a career in the dental field," said Karen Morgan, Cincinnati Dental Assistant School Program Manager.

Cincinnati's newest dental assistant school prepares students to work alongside other professionals in the dental field, through a curriculum that helps students graduate debt-free in 12 weeks. Students participate in onsite, hands-on labs through a local dental partner clinic. They conclude the certification with an 80-hour externship, one that allows learners to work under the direct guidance of experienced dental professionals in Cincinnati.

The goal is to make hands-on, dental assistant training accessible while helping students to graduate debt-free and save tens of thousands of dollars compared to traditional training options. To accomplish this goal, Cincinnati Dental Assistant School offers flexible payment options. Students can choose to pay in full or choose from a variety of plan options. Students can also work with the school to create a custom payment plan that aligns with their budget and needs.

By attending Cincinnati Dental Assistant School, students will grow industry-ready in weeks, developing skills in office sterilization, dental anatomy and physiology, radiography, dental instruments, and digital charting. Additionally, students train on administration skills in billing and coding, maintaining patient electronic health records, and general office management.

“We're thrilled to bring a new dental assistant school to Cincinnati, providing students with a hands-on, career-focused education to meet the growing demand for skilled dental professionals” said Chris Lofton, chief executive officer at Zollege. “Our mission is to remove traditional education barriers and empower local learners with the tools and training they need to succeed in this vital field.”

Once students complete their certification through Cincinnati Dental Assistant School, they're eligible to find employment in a variety of dental clinics within their community.
