

Highland Advisory Group Selects SwellSpace to Enhance Benefits Communication for Haak'U Health Center

CHARLESTON, SC, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Highland Advisory Group, a leading independent benefits and financial services firm, has selected SwellSpace to power benefits communication and access for Haak'U Health Center, a healthcare provider located in New Mexico. The new SwellSpace website gives employees, dependents, retirees, and candidates 24/7 access to critical HR and benefits information in a modern, easy-to-navigate format.

"We believe every employee deserves barrier-free access to their benefits," said Michael Cook, Principal and Director of Employee Benefits at Highland Advisory Group. "SwellSpace allows us to deliver that for Haak'U Health Center by providing a resource that employees, their families, and even prospective hires can rely on. For consultants, offering this level of access is no longer optional; it is an essential part of delivering value."

SwellSpace provides the Highland Advisory Group with the tools to update and maintain content directly, eliminating the need for IT support. This marks Highland Advisory Group's continued partnership with SwellSpace, having previously implemented the platform for other healthcare clients. The success of those launches has led Highland Advisory Group to expand its use of SwellSpace to support additional key clients like Haak'U Health Center, ensuring that information remains accurate, timely, and useful for employees, dependents, retirees, and candidates
