

Bid for Hope Gala to Support Parkinson's Research, Education, and Wheelchair Giveaway

Act4Parkinsons hosts a benefit gala with dinner, comedy, speaker, silent auction, and a Powered Wheelchair Giveaway for a local individual in need.

SPRINGFIELD, MO, UNITED STATES, October 23, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Springfield-Area Communities Invited to "Bid for Hope" Gala Supporting Parkinson's Research and Education

Act4Parkinsons(™), a nonprofit committed to simplifying Parkinson's education, expanding community support, and advancing research, invites residents from Springfield and surrounding communities to an inspiring evening of giving, laughter, and learning at its upcoming fundraiser, "Bid for Hope: A Parkinson's Benefit Gala", held on Thursday, November 13, 2025, from 5:00–8:00 PM at the Sertoma Event Center in Springfield.

We believe in bringing people together through joy and purpose—it's about raising hope and awareness for the Parkinson's community.”

Samantha York

The gala will feature a performance by beloved local comedian Bryce Stanley, a dinner reception, and a silent auction with exclusive items donated by Springfield-area businesses and supporters. Guests will also hear from Larry Skeen, PT, DPT, LSVT, a physical therapist with CoxHealth, who will share insights on early detection and intervention in Parkinson's care.

A special highlight of the evening will be the gifting of a

Powered Wheelchair to a local individual in need—a powerful moment that reflects Act4Parkinsons' commitment to direct community impact. Those interested in applying for
