The latest edition of the Award reaffirms the UAE's commitment to advancing the Arabic language as a key pillar of cultural identity and heritage. It also advances the vision of His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum to empower Arabic and expand its global presence.

Her Highness Sheikha Latifa bint Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum said: "The Arabic language carries within it a timeless legacy of wisdom and beauty as the language of our past and the voice of our future. The Mohammed Bin Rashid Arabic Language Award reflects our renewed commitment to safeguarding our invaluable heritage and ensuring it continues to flourish in an era of rapid technological and intellectual transformation. From Dubai, these initiatives serve as beacons that elevate global appreciation of the Arabic language, revealing it not only as a means of expression but as a bridge of culture, communication, and innovation.”

Her Highness added: “We take great pride in the exceptional calibre of this year’s submissions and in the growing global recognition the Award receives with every edition. What we celebrate today is a collective reaffirmation that Arabic is a language and a shared civilisational legacy connecting us across generations.”

His Excellency Mohammed Ahmed Al Murr, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Mohammed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum Library Foundation and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Mohammed Bin Rashid Arabic

Language Award, said: “The Mohammed Bin Rashid Arabic Language Award embodies His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid’s vision to strengthen the Arabic language’s global presence. It serves as a strategic platform that promotes excellence and innovation in fields such as education, technology, media, and language policy.”
