

Space Foundation and Space Force Association Announce New Partnership

Space Foundation and Space Force Association announce new partnership to bolster education, workforce development, and public awareness of the space domain.

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Space Foundation, a nonprofit organization founded in 1983 to advance the global space community, and the Space Force Association (SFA), created in 2019 to achieve superior national space power by supporting the Space Force and its partners, today signed a new Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) to collaborate on critical initiatives that strengthen the national and global space community. The strategic partnership will focus on bolstering education, workforce development, and public awareness of the space domain.

SPACE FORCE ASSOCIATION

The Space Force Association's core functions are to research, inform, and advocate to achieve superior spacepower.

SPACE FOUNDATION

Space Foundation advances the global space community through education, collaboration and information.

The agreement aligns Space Foundation's global convening and educational platforms with the SFA's professional and policy network to explore opportunities that support shared goals. Both organizations recognize that a strong, innovative, and skilled space workforce is vital to national leadership and global security.

"This MOU is an important step toward a unified strategy for advancing America's space priorities," said Heather Pringle, Space Foundation's CEO. "By combining our strengths, we can more effectively build the space workforce of the future and raise public awareness of the domain's importance to our collective security and prosperity."

"The Space Force Association is thrilled to formalize this relationship with Space Foundation," said Bill "Hippie" Woolf, CEO of the Space Force Association. "Their extensive reach in education and industry events, paired with our deep network in the defense and policy communities, creates a powerful synergy that will benefit all sectors of the space ecosystem."

The partnership will be managed by designated liaisons from each organization who will meet regularly to identify and evaluate joint projects. The MOU is effective for two years and establishes a non-binding framework for exploring and formalizing specific initiatives.
