

DOCUmentation Tips Off Year Three of Partnership with the Houston Rockets

HOUSTON , TX, UNITED STATES, October 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- DOCUmentation, Texas' largest privately held managed service provider, is proud to announce the continuation of its partnership with the Houston Rockets, marking the third consecutive year of collaboration between the two organizations.

The renewed partnership reinforces DOCUmentation's deep connection to the Houston community and its ongoing commitment to aligning with high-performing, community-driven organizations. Through the partnership, DOCUmentation continues to be an Official Partner with the ability to use Rockets marks and logos in their brand marketing.

Partnerships like this represent both brand alignment and a mutual commitment to our community”

of DOCUmentation Houston*

Beyond game-day visibility, the partnership also includes opportunities for community engagement and hospitality. DOCUmentation will host a Rockets mascot appearance at a company event and enjoy access to premium experiences such as party suite nights and theater box seating. The agreement further grants DOCUmentation official partner designation and the rights to use team marks and logos in marketing and promotions.

“Partnerships like this represent both brand alignment and a mutual commitment to our community” said Jordan Abshier, Vice President of DOCUmentation Houston. “The Rockets’ dedication to teamwork, performance, and excellence mirrors the standards we set for ourselves in serving customers across Texas. We’re honored to continue building on this relationship in year three.”

DOCUmentation provides managed IT, cybersecurity, print management, process automation, and software solutions to organizations across Texas, helping them streamline operations and strengthen their technology infrastructure. The partnership with the Houston Rockets exemplifies DOCUmentation's ongoing commitment to innovation, local engagement, and exceptional service.
