- Sunday, November 23: 12:00–18:00 (CET)
- Venue: NBB Gallery, Karl-Marx-Allee 75, 10243 Berlin, Germany

"This program brings together art, provenance, and long-term stewardship," said Steve Alain Lawrence, Chief Investment Officer of Balfour Capital Group. "We're honored to collaborate with the Sabatier family—stewards of a gallery legacy dating back to 1963—to engage collectors and investors around curated works and responsible market practices."

A representative of the Sabatier Family & Gallery added: "Our gallery has spent decades championing artists and building trust with collectors. Partnering with Balfour allows us to broaden that dialogue with a global audience while keeping the focus on authenticity, scholarship, and connoisseurship."

Program Highlights

- Curated selection of works from the Sabatier family and collaborating artists
- Remarks on collection strategy, provenance, and responsible market participation
- Networking with collectors, curators, and institutional guests
