SINGAPORE, October 27, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Blue Goat Cyber, the global authority in medical device cybersecurity and regulatory compliance, will attend the Singapore Week of Innovation and Technology \(SWITCH\) 2025, Asia's leading event for innovators, investors, and MedTech leaders shaping the future of healthcare technology.

We're building partnerships that advance medical device and healthcare cybersecurity — driving secure innovation and regulatory confidence worldwide.”

Melissa Espinosa, VP of Strategic Partnerships, Blue Goat Cyber

Representing Blue Goat Cyber are Christian Espinosa, CEO, and Melissa Espinosa, VP of Strategic Partnerships. The team is actively scheduling one-on-one meetings with MedTech innovators, manufacturers, and investors to discuss how robust cybersecurity strategies can accelerate regulatory success, patient safety, and global market expansion.

“Cybersecurity is now inseparable from patient safety,” said Christian Espinosa, CEO of Blue Goat Cyber. “At Blue Goat, we help manufacturers move faster and safer — turning regulatory complexity into competitive advantage.”

Blue Goat Cyber has supported more than 200 successful global submissions, helping manufacturers meet FDA and international cybersecurity requirements with precision. The company delivers end-to-end lifecycle protection — from secure design consulting and risk assessments to penetration testing, full documentation, regulatory submissions, and postmarket management — all backed by a 100% submission approval guarantee.

“SWITCH is where bold innovation meets global opportunity,” said Melissa Espinosa, VP of Strategic Partnerships. “We’re excited to connect with companies that understand cybersecurity isn’t just compliance — it’s confidence, credibility, and trust in every device.”
