Plutus Health earns a second consecutive ranking on the prestigious Inc. 5000 list, underscoring its continued growth, AI-driven innovation & measurable impact.

DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Plutus Health, a Dallas-based leader in AI-powered revenue cycle management (RCM), has been named for the 2025 Inc. 5000 list, a testament to its sustained growth and innovation in the U.S. healthcare RCM space. This achievement marks a significant milestone for Plutus Health, as it continues to lead the industry in modernizing healthcare revenue cycles through AI-driven solutions.

The Inc. 5000 honors the most resilient and high-performing companies in the nation, those that not only weather economic shifts but grow through them. For Plutus Health, this achievement marks another milestone in its journey to modernize how U.S. healthcare organizations manage their revenue cycles.

“Earning this recognition for the second year running is about more than growth - it’s about consistency, clarity, and commitment,” said Thomas John, CEO of Plutus Health. “Our team has proven that when you build technology that actually solves providers’ financial pain points and execute relentlessly, sustainable growth follows.”

Backed by Agentic AI, 24/7 support, and a 10,000+ hours of certified medical billing and coding experts, Plutus Health helps healthcare organizations nationwide increase collections, reduce denials, and gain financial visibility through intelligent automation.

Plutus Health is a leading provider of AI-powered revenue cycle management solutions, helping healthcare organizations optimize their financial performance and reduce operational costs.

Plutus Health - Excellence in Healthcare Revenue Cycle Management

Plutus Health Ranks on 2025 Inc. 5000 List for the second consecutive year

□□ AI-powered precision: Automation and real-time analytics that cut denials to below 3% and shorten A/R cycles to under 25 days.

□□ Scalable efficiency: Lean workflows that support multi-state providers, behavioral health networks, and ASCs without adding administrative burden.

□□ Measured impact: Net collection rates consistently exceed 98%, turning RCM from a cost center into a growth engine.

This recognition reaffirms Plutus Health's role as one of the fastest-growing companies in the U.S. RCM space and one of the few combining AI innovations with deep healthcare domain expertise. The company continues to partner with hospitals, behavioral health providers, ABA therapy centers, and ASCs to build financially resilient organizations.
