ANOKA, MN, UNITED STATES, October 31, 2025
/EINPresswire.com/ -- ItsOnly5Bucks.com — Born in the Halloween Capital of the World, Dr. Stewes Launches The \$5 Dollar Life, the First Book That Makes Learning A.I. Simple Enough for Anyone, Anywhere, to Start Today

From the Halloween Capital of the World comes a movement that turns five dollars into hope, education, and freedom. Dr. Stewes, creator of the Little $5 Dollar Books™ Series, has released The $5 Dollar Life — How to Turn Five Dollars Into Freedom, a first-of-its-kind book that teaches A.I. to adults in clear, first-grade-level steps — simple, friendly, and impossible to fail.

Here's the best part: the entire book — and the message behind It's Only $5 Bucks.

Anyone, anywhere in the world can begin their own A.I. journey for the cost of a cup of coffee — right now at ItsOnly5Bucks.com.

"This isn't about technology," says Dr. Stewes. "It's about helping people see that they're never alone again — because A.I. can now walk you through anything, step by step, like your best new friend."

The Little $5 Dollar Books™ series is designed to make learning and wealth-building accessible to everyone, one $5 seed at a time. The book's mission is simple: to get people reading again, to help them think for themselves, and to teach them how to grow their own opportunities through A.I. and self-education.

The eBook edition of The $5 Dollar Life is available now worldwide on Amazon and Barnes & Noble, and the paperback edition will follow immediately after Halloween — so readers everywhere can hold the $5 seed in their hands and share it with friends.

Dr. Stewes calls the movement a “first-grade-level revolution,” teaching everyday people the same creative tools that billion-dollar companies use — without the confusion or intimidation. The $5 Dollar Life combines inspiration, simplicity, and real-world practicality, showing readers how to start small and watch what grows.

“If a local news mini-segment ever picked this up, the whole world could hear about it within 24 hours — because a single $5 seed can spread faster than any headline,” says Dr. Stewes.
