The itinerary spans ten cities in four countries, with meetings scheduled from October 28 through November 20, 2025. CSG Law partner, Rohit Turkhud will accompany the tour to provide legal support and petition strategy.

The trip begins in:

- * Dubai (October 26 to 28)
- * Mumbai (October 29 to 31)
- * Pune (November 1)
- * Bangalore (November 2 to 3)
- * Hyderabad (November 4)
- * Chennai (November 5)
- * Delhi (November 6 to 10)
- * Singapore (November 12 to 13)
- * Mumbai (November 14 to 16)

Vivek Tandon Esq.

* Hong Kong (November 17 to 18)

Vivek Tandon has built EB5 BRICS into a trusted resource for families navigating the complexities of moving from F1 visa to Green Card through the EB-5 process. His firm provides education, investment access, and strategic planning tailored to each client's financial and immigration goals. Through his collaboration with CSG Law, clients receive comprehensive legal support, including source-of-funds documentation, compliance planning, and USCIS petition preparation.

Rohit Turkhud brings decades of experience in EB-5 immigration law and international filings. His involvement in the tour reinforces the shared commitment to legal clarity, transparency, and alignment across diverse markets. Together, Tandon and Turkhud have supported clients in India, the UAE, Singapore, Hong Kong and other regions where investor migration requires precision and trust.

The Events will include private consultations, legal briefings, and documentation reviews in each city. Vivek Tandon has outlined a clear focus on helping families prepare for 2026 EB-5 filings, interpret evolving USCIS standards, and evaluate investment projects with legal safeguards in place. Meetings will be tailored to address individual concerns around source-of-funds documentation, petition readiness, and long-term planning.

As interest in the EB-5 program continues to grow across Asia and the Middle East, Vivek Tandon remains focused on delivering clear, actionable guidance. His approach combines education, legal coordination, and client-first strategy to ensure families are supported at every stage of the process.
