

Peace Care St. Ann's Awarded on Newsweek as one of America's Best Nursing Homes 2026

Peace Care St. Ann's in Jersey City, New Jersey Recognized by Newsweek as one of America's Best Nursing Homes 2026!

JERSEY CITY, OH, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Peace Care St. Ann's has been recognized on Newsweek's America's Best Nursing Homes 2026 list. This prestigious award is presented in collaboration with Statista, the world-leading statistics portal and industry ranking provider. The awards list was announced on September 24th, 2025, and can currently be viewed on Newsweek's website.

America's Best Nursing Homes 2026 ranking awards the leading nursing homes in the U.S. The winners were recognized in three categories: large (150+ certified beds), medium (100–149 certified beds), and small (50–99 certified beds). The evaluation is based on four key pillars:

- Performance Indicators: Data on staffing, quality measures, and health inspections.
- Reputation Score: An online survey among medical professionals (registered nurses, nursing home managers, licensed therapists and physicians).
- Accreditations: Official recognition by TJC and CARF for meeting quality and safety standards.
- Resident Satisfaction: Patient and relatives' feedback reflected in Google rating scores.

Based on the results of the study, Peace Care St. Ann's is honored to be recognized as one of Newsweek's America's Best Nursing Homes 2026. St. Ann's Administrator Bob Reyes said, "We are honored to receive this award, as it represents our team's ongoing commitment to clinical excellence." Peace Care CEO, Kyle Hreben, also said, "Peace Care St. Ann's continues to be a beacon of quality and compassionate care in Hudson County, and we couldn't be prouder."
