“

Opening an office in Henderson allows us to be closer to the families we serve, making it simpler for them to access the help they need during a difficult time.”

Molly S. Rosenblum, Esq.

The expansion into Henderson is a direct response to the increasing need for skilled family law counsel in the area. The firm recognizes that facing a family law challenge is stressful, and having a local presence makes it easier for clients to receive the personalized attention and clear guidance they deserve. As a team of Henderson family

This new location reinforces the firm's commitment to providing experienced family law representation throughout the Las Vegas valley. By establishing a physical presence in Henderson, the firm ensures that residents of communities like Anthem, Inspirada, Seven Hills, and Green Valley have a convenient option for confidential consultations and ongoing legal support.

The firm's attorneys are well-versed in the procedures of local courts, including the Henderson Justice Court and the Clark County Family Court, which serves the entire Las Vegas-Henderson-Paradise metropolitan area. This localized knowledge is critical for effectively managing cases involving property division, child support, and custody arrangements under Nevada law.

"Opening an office in Henderson allows us to be closer to the families we serve, making it simpler for them to access the help they need during a difficult time," said Molly Rosenblum, Co-Founder and CEO. "Our goal has always been to provide compassionate, effective legal support, and this new location is a significant step in fulfilling that promise for the Henderson community."

The Rosenblum Allen Law Firm focuses on the full spectrum of family law, with a particular emphasis on resolving divorce and child custody disputes efficiently. The team is dedicated to finding tailored solutions, whether through strategic negotiation, mediation, or tenacious representation in court.
