Prime 1 Studio announced "Avatar (Film) Jake Sully & The Great Leonopteryx" Statue. Pre-orders began on October 31, 2025 (JST), with release set for May 2027.

ASAKUSA, TAITO-KU, TOKYO, JAPAN,
November 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/
-- Prime 1 Studio is pleased to announce the latest addition to the Real Elite Masterline: Jake Sully & The Great Leonopteryx, inspired by James Cameron's 2009 film "Avatar".

This 1/4 scale statue depicts Jake Sully as "Toruk Makto," the rider of the Great Leonopteryx. The piece reproduces the appearance of his Avatar body and the creature known as the Last Shadow, presenting both characters in a faithful and detailed form.

The statue's sculpting and paintwork carefully reflect key visual elements from the film, including Jake's braided hair, patterned skin, and Na'vi-style spear. The design of his equipment, such as the grenades, retains the contrast between his human and Na'vi identities. Special attention was given to the eyes to recreate their layered structure and distinctive coloration.
