

J. Bradley Hilton to Speak at AHJC Grand Gala at Mar-a-Lago on Reimagining Wellness and Mental Health Through Innovation

WEST PALM BEACH , FL, UNITED STATES, October 29, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- J. Bradley Hilton, visionary entrepreneur, Chairman of the Hilton Family Office, and grandson of hospitality pioneer Conrad N. Hilton, will be a featured speaker at the American Hindu-Jewish Congress (AHJC) Grand Gala at the Mar-a-Lago Club. The landmark event will spotlight interfaith collaboration and a shared commitment to advancing mental-health awareness, innovation, and compassionate care across communities nationwide.

"We're entering a new era of medicine—one where people have the power to participate in their own healing," said Hilton. "Next-generation wellness isn't just about technology—it's about restoring balance between body, mind, and purpose."

Hilton's address will explore the transformative potential of non-invasive, next-generation medical technologies that restore physical health while supporting mental well-being, addiction recovery, and emotional resilience. Drawing on breakthroughs in metabolic restoration, Hilton will discuss how modern science and ancient wisdom together can empower individuals to take control of their health and live more fulfilled lives.

A Night Dedicated to Unity, Innovation, and Impact

Hosted by the American Hindu-Jewish Congress, the Grand Gala will bring together distinguished leaders, philanthropists, and advocates to elevate mental-health education, awareness, and culturally informed care. Proceeds will support programs promoting understanding, reducing bias, and fostering interfaith collaboration.

"When we restore health at the cellular level, we restore hope at the human level," Hilton added. "This is about creating a future where healing is accessible, compassionate, and inclusive."

Venue of Distinction

The Gala will be held at the historic Mar-a-Lago Club in West Palm Beach, providing an elegant setting for an evening centered on purpose, philanthropy, and progress.
