

Carolina Skylights Announces Limited-Time Savings on Solatube Daylighting Systems

Solatube Premier Dealer Carolina Skylights has announced a limited-time 50% Off promotion on bundled daylighting systems and accessories.

CHARLOTTE, NC, UNITED STATES, October 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Solatube Premier Dealer Carolina Skylights has announced a limited-time promotion on bundled daylighting systems and accessories. Homeowners across North and South Carolina can now take advantage of special year-end pricing on Solatube Tubular Skylights and home ventilation products designed to enhance comfort, improve indoor air quality, and reduce energy costs. This promotion aligns with the final months of the 30% federal solar tax credit, set to expire at the end of the year, creating a unique opportunity for homeowners to maximize savings on eligible daylighting installations.

Add Natural Daylight Anywhere

Advanced Technology for Naturally Lit Interiors

Solatube Daylighting Systems use advanced optical domes and patented tubing to capture sunlight from the roof and deliver it deep into interior spaces, helping to brighten rooms without direct roof access. Unlike traditional skylights, Solatube systems are engineered for minimal heat gain, consistent, glare-free illumination, and fast, mess-free installation.

The highly reflective, sealed tubing allows daylight to travel around attic obstacles and through tight spaces, brightening kitchens, bathrooms, closets, hallways, and other interior rooms that often lack natural light. Homeowners frequently report reduced reliance on artificial lighting, improved visual comfort, more vibrant colors, and rooms that feel larger and more inviting. Increased exposure to natural light can also support circadian rhythm regulation, contributing to better mood and improved sleep quality.

With the federal solar tax credit nearing its end, our goal is to make healthy, energy-efficient daylight accessible to every homeowner.”
