

Advanced Digital Automotive Group Selected to Recreate CCAR Automotive Safety and Environmental Training Website

Advanced Digital Automotive Group has been selected to recreate the Coordinating Committee for Automotive Repair (CCAR) website, enhancing safety of auto shops.

CLEARWATER, FL, UNITED STATES, December 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Advanced Digital Automotive Group (ADAG) has been selected to redesign and modernize the website for the Coordinating Committee for Automotive Repair (CCAR), the only training organization aligned with OSHA and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). CCAR provides industry-recognized safety and hazardous material training designed to help automotive professionals remain Safe. Clean. Green.

The new CCAR website will enhance access to online courses such as HazmatU and OSHA-compliant safety training, which support compliance for dealerships, collision centers, schools, and independent repair facilities. ADAG's development team will focus on improving usability, performance, and scalability, ensuring that CCAR's digital platform continues to deliver vital environmental and safety training to automotive professionals nationwide.

A Word from the Owner

"We're proud to collaborate with CCAR in modernizing their digital platform and supporting their mission to keep the automotive industry safe, clean, and compliant," said Paul Donahue, CEO of Advanced Digital Automotive Group.
