MPLT Healthcare is pleased to announce that CEO Liz Hale has been officially sworn in as President of the Board of Directors for NALTO.

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES, October 29, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MPLT Healthcare is pleased to announce that CEO Liz Hale has been officially sworn in as President of the Board of Directors for the National Association of Locum Tenens Organizations (NALTO).

As President, Hale will guide NALTO's efforts to uphold the highest standards of ethics and professional practice in the locum tenens staffing industry.

With more than three decades of leadership in healthcare staffing — including service as Vice President, President-Elect, and Chair of the NALTO Credentialing Committee — Hale brings extensive expertise and an unwavering commitment to advancing quality patient care by elevating standards across the locum tenens industry.

I have every confidence that under her leadership, NALTO will continue to advance its role as the standard-bearer for excellence and integrity within the industry.”

Jarin Dana, Immediate Past President of NALTO

“Liz Hale has demonstrated exceptional leadership, professionalism, and dedication to the locum tenens industry. Her long-standing commitment to NALTO's mission and values has had a meaningful impact on our organization and the providers, clients, and firms we serve. I have every confidence that under her leadership, NALTO will continue to advance its role as the standard-bearer for excellence and integrity within the industry,” said Jarin Dana, Immediate Past President of NALTO.

Liz Hale, CEO

Throughout her years of service on the NALTO Board, Hale has helped spearhead initiatives that strengthen transparency, ethical practices, and collaboration among member firms. As President, she will continue to champion best practices that uphold NALTO's mission and elevate the locum tenens profession nationwide.

"I am deeply honored to lead NALTO and to continue building upon the important work of my predecessors," said Liz Hale, President of NALTO and CEO of MPLT Healthcare. "Together with my colleagues on the Board, we will continue to champion the integrity, accountability, and excellence that define our industry and ensure that NALTO remains a trusted voice for providers, clients, and staffing firms alike."

About NALTO

The National Association of Locum Tenens Organizations (NALTO) was founded in 2001 to establish and enforce strong industry standards and ethical guidelines for locum tenens staffing firms.
