EINPresswire.com/ -- The 2026 Noble World Hotel Awards is now open for global submissions, inviting hotels, hospitality groups, design studios, and professionals to showcase their achievements in service, guest experience, and design excellence. Organized by the International Awards Associate (IAA), the award continues to honor distinction within the international hospitality industry through a transparent and accessible entry process.

2026 Noble World Hotel Awards Calling for Entries

For this year’s award, we welcome properties and creative teams that demonstrate how design and experience work hand in hand to create lasting impressions for guests.”

Thomas Brandt, spokesperson of IAA

“What defines great hospitality is not scale, but balance, where leadership guides, design inspires, and service connects,” said Thomas Brandt, spokesperson of IAA. “For this year’s award, we welcome properties and creative teams that demonstrate how design and experience work hand in hand to create lasting impressions for guests. These are the hallmarks that continue to define the Noble title.”

Global Community of Entrants

Entries are accepted across key hotel award categories including Hotels, Resorts, Boutique Hotels, Villas, Hospitality Design and Hotel Leadership. Each submission is evaluated by an independent jury comprising professionals from hospitality, architecture, and interior design, ensuring a credible judging process.
