

BRICS, De-Dollarization and U.S. Debt

SAN JUAN, TN, PUERTO RICO, October 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BRICS, De-Dollarization and U.S. Debt

Congressman Mark Green and Christian Briggs Break It Down on The Hard Asset Money Show

The Voice of Reason host David Dias engaged former Congressman Mark Green and Hard Asset Management CEO Christian Briggs in a January 9, 2025 episode examining the economic challenges shaping America's future. Green, who was serving as Chairman of the Homeland Security Committee at the time, joined Briggs to discuss BRICS expansion and the global shift away from the U.S. dollar.

The conversation explores how BRICS nations are working to reduce dependence on the U.S. dollar in international trade. Green and Briggs analyze the effects on American financial stability and the dollar's reserve currency status.

"This isn't a war of combat hand-to-hand.... This is a financial war." said Christian Briggs. "When you start to look at the economics or the power of what the BRICS represent, no wonder that tariffs are the headlines."

Former Congressman Green provides a policymaker's perspective on fiscal and strategic challenges America faces amid record federal debt and an evolving global monetary framework. The discussion covers domestic implications including inflation, currency confidence, and the future of sound money principles.

The episode contributes to public dialogue surrounding international finance and economic sovereignty as the global reserve system undergoes transformation.
