families navigate quick home sales with a straightforward, personalized approach that stands in stark contrast to traditional real estate transactions. Founded on the principle that listing with an agent works for some homeowners but not all, this local family-owned business has built its reputation on simplifying what is often one of life's most stressful experiences.

"I wanted to create an easier and faster way to help families sell a house," said Henry Loud, founder of R&H Distressed Properties. "Traditional real estate works well for many people, but I saw countless Sacramento families who needed a different option—one without the lengthy timelines, costly repairs, and the uncertainty that comes with listing a home on the market."

What sets R&H Distressed Properties apart is its commitment to combining family values with efficient service. As a local, family-owned business deeply rooted in the Sacramento community, the company takes a personal approach to each transaction, treating every homeowner's situation with care and respect.

A Simple Three-Step Process

R&H Distressed Properties has streamlined home selling into three straightforward steps, eliminating the complexity that typically involves 10 to 15 stages in traditional real estate transactions.

Step 1: Free Consultation and Property Evaluation – Homeowners connect with R&H Distressed Properties for a no-pressure, no-obligation conversation about their property and circumstances. Whether dealing with an inherited house, facing foreclosure, managing a fire or water damaged home, handling costly repairs, or simply wanting to sell quickly, the company listens to understand each unique situation.

Step 2: Same-Day Fair Cash Offer – Unlike traditional sales that involve waiting for buyers, negotiations, and uncertainty, R&H Distressed Properties provides a competitive cash offer the same day based on current market conditions and the property's value. The offer comes with complete transparency about how it was calculated, and homeowners are never pressured to accept.

Step 3: Choose Your Closing Date – Sellers have complete control over timing, with the ability to close in as few as seven days or on a schedule that works for their needs. This flexibility allows families to plan moves, coordinate with new housing, or simply take the time they need without traditional sale pressures.

Family Values Drive Business Practices

As a family-owned business, R&H Distressed Properties operates with a personal touch that larger corporate buyers cannot match. Every homeowner works directly with decision-makers who have the authority and flexibility to address individual needs and concerns.

"We treat every customer the way we'd want our own family members treated," said Henry Loud. "That means honest conversations, fair offers, and genuine care about helping people move forward with their lives."

The company's approach has resonated with Sacramento homeowners who value personal relationships over transactional experiences. By taking time to understand each family's circumstances and goals, R&H Distressed Properties creates solutions tailored to individual needs rather than forcing sellers into a one-size-fits-all process.

Eliminating Traditional Sale Headaches

The simplified process at R&H Distressed Properties means homeowners can skip the demanding requirements of traditional real estate sales. As established cash home buyers in Sacramento, the company purchases properties as-is, eliminating the need for repairs, renovations, deep cleaning, or staging.

Sellers working with R&H Distressed Properties benefit from no realtor commissions or hidden fees, no costly repairs required, no showings or open houses, no waiting for buyer financing approvals, no deals falling through, no uncertainty about closing dates, and direct communication with the actual buyer.

For Sacramento families searching "we buy houses" or looking to sell your house fast, R&H Distressed Properties offers a genuine alternative that prioritizes simplicity and transparency.

The company handles all paperwork, coordinates with title companies, and manages every detail of the transaction.

Deep Roots in the Sacramento Community

R&H Distressed Properties' commitment to Sacramento extends beyond business transactions. As an active member of the Sacramento Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce, the company participates in initiatives that strengthen the local business community and support economic growth throughout the region.

The family-owned business also demonstrates its community commitment through regular donations to the Sacramento Food Bank, helping ensure local families have access to essential resources.

"Sacramento isn't just where we do business—it's our home," said Henry Loud. "We're invested in this community's success because these are our neighbors and friends. Supporting local organizations like the Food Bank is one way we can give back to the community that has supported us."

Having served Sacramento homeowners since 2016, R&H Distressed Properties has developed intimate knowledge of local neighborhoods, market conditions, and the unique challenges facing area residents. This local expertise, combined with family-owned flexibility, allows the company to provide personalized solutions that out-of-state investors and large corporations cannot match.
