

YUNHWAY Goes Global with Electrifying EP 'Arrived'

PORTLAND, OR, UNITED STATES, October 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Korean rapper, singer, and songwriter YUNHWAY (윤하) continues her trailblazing rise with the release of her 6-track EP "Arrived". The lead single of the project "BIGGER," is an electrifying track that cements her as one of the most fearless and innovative voices in global hip-hop and R&B.

Born in South Korea and raised between Vanuatu and Portland, Oregon, YUNHWAY's cross-cultural perspective has shaped a sound that is futuristic, genre-bending, and unmistakably her own. Since first capturing national attention on 'Show Me The Money', her bold presence and hypnotic tone have propelled her into the spotlight as one of Korea's most distinctive artists.

"BIGGER" takes that reputation to a new level. Inspired by the pulsating energy of Brazilian phonk, YUNHWAY fuses hard-hitting electronic production with her signature rap flow, creating a sound that feels both instantly familiar and entirely new. The track's opening moments explode with heavy bass and relentless drive, setting the stage for a club-ready anthem that's impossible to ignore.

Describing the track, YUNHWAY shares: "Everything right now is too small to hold me in. Imma make it BIGGER." It's a declaration of intent: loud, unapologetic, and undeniably global. With its addictive hook, genre-defying production, and the kind of energy built for massive live stages, "BIGGER" is a song that not only showcases YUNHWAY's boundary-pushing artistry but also points to her unstoppable trajectory.

With her new EP and international collaborations on the horizon and a growing fanbase across the world, YUNHWAY is redefining the evolution of Korean hip-hop. And with “Arrived”, she proves once again that her vision and voice are far too powerful to be contained.
