WOMEN LEADERS IN LAW

Florida Trend invited peer nominations from across the state to identify women in law who met specific criteria and methodology requirements. Nominations were vetted, and the most noteworthy candidates were selected based on their outstanding leadership, mentorship and vision for change and growth.

“The Florida Bar heartily congratulates our members receiving this incredible honor, reflecting their commitment to leadership, excellence and professionalism,” notes Florida Bar President Rosalyn Sia Baker-Barnes. “As lawyers, we are privileged to serve the public and our judicial system, and this honor represents those who do so at the very highest level.”

“We are honored to present this section of Legal Elite NOTABLE – Women Leaders in Law, published in Florida Trend's November issue. This honor distinguishes and recognizes this select group of women for their outstanding contribution to their organization and industry. The section presents a short profile on each recognized leader, highlighting the impact they've made to their organization, the legal profession and the community at large,” says President and Publisher David Denor.
