Our outreach program is an opportunity for furloughed employees to take advantage of this time away from work to accomplish this goal and to get their own peace of mind planning done.”

George Reilly, Partner, Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig

The firm's Private Wealth & Trust Services Practice Group will provide comprehensive estate planning services including Wills, Powers of Attorney, healthcare directives, and Trust-based planning for more complex situations such as second marriages, blended families, and special beneficiary considerations.

Special Offer Includes:

- Substantial discounts from regular fees for essential legal readiness plans and comprehensive Trust-based planning
- Flexible payment arrangements allowing clients to pay a modest retainer upfront and settle the balance after returning to work

"Our DBL team has relatives, friends, neighbors and clients who are impacted by the government shutdown. Our hope is that it will be resolved soon. While estate planning seems like it would be low on the priority list for our community members affected by the shutdown, we know that for many of them getting their planning done is a goal they have," said George Reilly, Partner, Dunlap Bennett & Ludwig. "Our outreach program is an opportunity for them to take advantage of this time away from work to accomplish this goal and get their own peace of mind planning done. As we often tell our clients, they will feel relief to get their plan in place for the just in case."

According to recent surveys, only about 40 percent of Americans have even a basic Will, and even fewer have legal documents that would assist them or their families in the event of temporary or permanent incapacity.
