-- Accelecom, a leading provider of next-generation fiber solutions, announced today that it has been selected by Gordon State College to provide high-speed network connectivity into its McDonough,

Georgia campus. This collaboration marks a significant milestone in enhancing the college's connectivity infrastructure and enables seamless communication and data transfer capabilities for its students, faculty, and staff across its middle Georgia campuses.

Accelecom's unique position in the market will allow our campuses to function as a single network...”

Douglas Stewart, CIO of Gordon State College

By leveraging Accelecom's advance fiber network, the College is enabled with unparalleled speed, reliability, and scalability, further fostering innovation, research, and collaboration across its campuses in Barnesville, Georgia and McDonough, Georgia.

Brad Kilbey, CEO of Accelecom, expressed his enthusiasm about the partnership, stating, "We are thrilled to collaborate with Gordon State College in providing cutting-edge fiber services. At Accelecom, we understand the pivotal role of robust connectivity in enabling academic excellence and technological advancement. This partnership underscores our commitment to delivering superior telecommunication solutions tailored to the unique needs of educational institutions."

Douglas Stewart, CIO of Gordon State College echoed Kilbey's sentiments, highlighting the transformative impact of Accelecom's fiber services on the college's technological landscape. "Accelecom's unique position in the market will allow our campuses to function as a single network, providing the same level of access, security, and experience no matter which campus a student is located. We are confident this partnership will empower our faculty and students to innovate, collaborate, and excel in a digital-driven world."

Supporting Public Universities, Private Colleges, Technical Colleges, K-12 schools, and Library

Systems across Georgia has been a core focus of Accelecom's go-to-market services for over 15 years, developing from its roots in the former Georgia Public Web. Collaborating closely with these educational and community institutions is fundamental to our ongoing commitment and success.

About Gordon State College
