

OneRoyal Upgrades with Acuity Trading's AI-Powered Signals and Dynamic Email Tools

UNITED KINGDOM, November 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Acuity Trading is proud to announce the integration of its advanced AI-powered trading signals and Dynamic Email solutions with OneRoyal, a multi-licensed broker with over 20 years of trusted service. This partnership will strengthen OneRoyal's offering for traders bringing next-generation data-driven decision-making tools to these dynamic markets.

With this latest upgrade, OneRoyal's traders now have access to Acuity's fully automated AI trade signals, which draw on real-time market sentiment, volatility, and historical data. The result is a powerful set of tools that provide data-driven insights to support traders' decision-making across FX, Indices, Commodities, Crypto, and more than 1,000 US stocks.

OneRoyal's traders can also take advantage of Acuity's Dynamic Email integration, tailored daily insights delivered straight to their inbox, offering clarity and information in fast-moving markets.

Acuity's AI-powered signals build on its flagship AnalysisIQ product, blending traditional technical analysis with advanced NLP and sentiment analysis. This comprehensive approach offers traders coverage of over 2,000 high-liquidity assets, including major global indices and a growing range of cryptocurrencies.

Andrew Lane, CEO of Acuity Trading, added:
