

Regent Bank Launches Relief Loan Program for Federal Workers

Low-interest relief loans offer federal employees 0% APR for three months to help bridge missed paychecks during the government shutdown

TULSA, OK, UNITED STATES, November 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As part of its ongoing commitment to the community, Regent Bank has announced a Government Shutdown Relief Loan Program to help federal employees affected by the ongoing government shutdown. The program provides quick, low-cost access to funds for those temporarily without pay.

Program Highlights:

- Eligibility: Federal workers impacted by the shutdown
- Loan Amount: Up to twice the verified net paycheck (maximum $10,000)
- Term: Initial 3-month note, extendable for another 3 months if needed
- Rate: 0% APR for the first 3 months; converts to WSJ Prime thereafter if balance remains

Requirements:

- Active Regent Bank checking account with direct deposit
- Verification of federal employment
- Recent pay stub or equivalent proof of net pay
- Minimum credit score of 640

Applications will be reviewed quickly and handled with care by the local banking team. Federal employees can reach out to the bank at www.regent.bank/contact or visit their nearest Regent Bank location.

Regent Bank believes in relationships—not transactions—and it is proud to stand with its customers and community.
