We are grateful for Padraic's love of this work and natural-born leadership skills as we continue to build for the future.”

Ryan Heckman, Co-founder & CEO, Rallyday Partners

McConville, a native of Rochester, NY, has approximately 20 years of experience in private equity and executive management. Prior to Rallyday, he started an independent sponsor, The Parkpoint Company, that ultimately merged into Rallyday in 2022.

“It's a great privilege to be given this opportunity at Rallyday,” said Padraic. “Rallyday has always set out to create a unique culture in private equity and to build a product that will help leadership teams and their companies grow – I'm grateful to play a part in delivering on that vision.”

Padraic's promotion reinforces Rallyday's commitment to its 'by founders, for founders' approach and marks the next chapter in the firm's vision to build a franchise in the lower middle market. His experience – both as an investor and an operator – aligns perfectly with Rallyday's mission to build legendary companies.

"We're honored to celebrate Padraic's contributions to this inspired organization," said Ryan Heckman, Rallyday Co-founder and CEO. "We are grateful for Padraic's love of this work and natural-born leadership skills as we continue to build for the future."

In his new role as Partner, Padraic will continue leading the investment team, supporting founders and their executive teams, and strengthening Rallyday's unique culture built by founders for founders. Padraic will also join Co-founders and Managing Partners Nancy Phillips, Mark Hopkins, Frank Corvino and Ryan Heckman in the firm's executive committee, where he will contribute to the firm's strategic leadership.
