

Community Groups Hold Food Drive After Andy Harris Votes to Cut SNAP Benefits

Food drive Nov. 6 outside Andy Harris' Salisbury office supports MD Eastern Shore Food Bank, protesting his vote for cuts to SNAP benefits.

SALISBURY, MD, UNITED STATES, November 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cambridge Indivisible, along with the Talbot County Democratic Forum, Shore Progress, and the Dorchester Democratic Central Committee, will hold a community food drive this Thursday, November 6, from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. outside Congressman Andy Harris' Salisbury office at 100 East Main Street to benefit the Maryland Eastern Shore Food Bank.

The action comes in response to Harris' July 3 vote in favor of the "One Big Beautiful Bill Act," a controversial measure that passed by a narrow 218–214 margin and included deep cuts to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). Harris previously abstained by voting "present" in May, before switching to a "yes" vote that helped the legislation become law on July 4, 2025.

While working families struggle to put food on the table, Andy Harris sided with cuts that make hunger worse; we're not waiting for politicians to act — we're taking care of our own community.

“While working families struggle to put food on the table, Andy Harris sided with cuts that make hunger worse,” said Michelle Fowle, co-founder of Cambridge Indivisible. “We’re not waiting for politicians to act — we’re taking care of our own community.”

Organizers are calling the event a show of solidarity and compassion in the face of federal inaction during the ongoing government shutdown, which has disrupted funding for key nutrition programs.

Top donation needs include:

Fruit cups (in juice)

Rice

Shelf-stable milk

Peanut butter and jelly

Canned proteins

Pasta and beans

Toiletries

"Every act of generosity sends a message that compassion is stronger than cruelty," said Fowle. "When Harris abandons us, we take care of each other."

Community members are encouraged to bring non-perishable food items or toiletries to the event. All donations will go directly to the Maryland Eastern Shore Food Bank for distribution to local families in need.
