-- Driving Customer Success, Business Growth, and Operational Excellence with Purpose

Influential Women is proud to announce the inclusion of Allison Kelly in its esteemed 2025 recognition series. Allison stands out as a dynamic, people-centric leader deeply committed to SaaS technology, customer success, and social impact.

Bringing 6 years of customer success experience to her current role as a Customer Success Executive at Unite Us, Allison excels in managing complex government programs. Her expertise in leveraging data insights enables her to retain clients, optimize cross-functional collaboration, and deliver measurable outcomes that drive success. With a strong foundation in educational leadership, Allison has demonstrated a proven track record in both the public and private sectors, driving operational excellence and client satisfaction across diverse enterprise portfolios.

Allison holds a Bachelor of Arts in English Studies from Ramapo College of New Jersey and a Master of Education from American InterContinental University. Her experience as a Senior Adjunct Professor at Atlantic Cape Community College, combined with a dynamic career spanning startup implementation to statewide government strategy, underscores her dedication to lifelong learning, community development, and building scalable systems that drive meaningful impact.

In reflecting on her career journey, Allison shares that the best advice she has ever received was simple yet profound: “Don’t give up—persistence has opened more doors for me than perfection ever could.” This mantra serves as a guiding principle in her professional life, and she encourages young women entering the industry to believe in their capabilities and to remain steadfast in the face of challenges, particularly in male-dominated roles.

Allison Kelly is recognized not only for her strategic thinking and results-driven approach but also for her mentorship and unwavering dedication to team development. She embodies the spirit of a leader who uplifts and inspires those around her, making her a standout feature in the 2025 Influential Women recognition series.
