

Studio CT welcomes unprecedented record breaking crowds to Betsey Johnson's first art exhibit

AGOURA HILLS, CA, UNITED STATES, November 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Studio CT gallery space was transformed into a shimmering world of color, creativity, and charisma as fashion icon Betsey Johnson unveiled her first-ever art exhibition to a record breaking and awe-inspired crowd.

From the moment the doors opened, hundreds of guests were immersed in a wonderland of original drawings and paintings that captured Betsey's unmistakable energy, wildly whimsical, deeply human, and powerfully feminine. Guests, collectors, designers, and fans alike came from near and far to witness the next chapter of an icon who has spent decades reimagining what it means to live artfully.

Betsey welcomed every visitor with the rare gift of her time and attention. She greeted guests not just as bystanders, but as cherished individuals—her eyes bright, her laughter genuine, her interest sincere. Betsey's openness and selflessness left a lasting impression. Her authentic curiosity and welcoming presence created moments of extraordinary connection to all.

Celebrity designer and best-selling author Mercedes Ganon was visibly moved as Betsey admired her coat, which Mercedes had designed herself. Without hesitation, Mercedes offered the jacket to Betsey—Along with a copy of new book 'How To Survive A Knockout', Betsey graciously accepted, taking both gifts home as a token of shared admiration. Swarovski-recognized jewelry designer Margaret Rowe described the evening as "one of the most wonderful exhibits" she had ever attended. Singer Queeny King recalled a quiet, poignant discussion with Betsey about their mutual friend, (Queeny's mother-in-law,) chart-topping legend Cher. Emmy winning costume designer Brenda Cooper and Betsey talked about Cooper's innovative and unique designs on The Nanny.

Publicist Christine Peake of peakPRgroup was on hand keeping the hundreds of fans and art enthusiasts in line as they all awaited their personal moment with Betsey.

"Betsey has the rarest gift," said Nancy Fath, co-founder of Studio CT. "She makes every single person feel like they are the most important person in the room. She signed shoes, hugged guests, admired handmade gifts, and gave her full heart. Her spirit lit up the gallery."
