

Gateway Services Group Launches New Website to Better Serve Credit Unions

Website features streamlined navigation, richer service pages and an upgraded experience.

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, CO, UNITED STATES, November 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gateway Services Group, LLC, a credit-union-owned family of companies specializing in innovative credit union solutions designed to enhance member value through expert management and advisory services, is pleased to announce the launch of its new website at gsgllc.com. The redesigned site delivers faster paths to information, clearer service overviews and an improved user experience across desktop and mobile.

We built the new site to reflect how we work: straightforward guidance, measurable value and a focus on the member. It's a cleaner way to explore everything we offer.”

Scott Jentz, Founder, President and CEO of Gateway Services Group

GSG has always been about practical solutions delivered by people who understand credit unions, and the organization's new website makes it easier for users to find what they need, review their options and connect with the right expert.

Notable improvements include:

- Simplified navigation and faster performance – A cleaner menu and page structure help visitors get where they're going in fewer clicks, with speed and accessibility improvements that make the site easier to use on any device.
- Upgraded Current Loan Offerings – A refreshed section that makes it easier to explore high-quality current loan offerings spanning commercial, consumer and real-estate assets, with concise summaries and direct access to term sheets.
- Service hubs designed for quick decisions – Clear, skimmable pages for Checking Enhancement, Insurance, Investment Programs (including digital investing), Loan Participation and Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans (SERPs), each with outcomes, key features and simple next steps.

- Broker-Dealer Review and RFP Services – New content detailing GSG’s comprehensive review and RFP process that removes the guesswork from broker/dealer selection. Through detailed evaluations, fiduciary-alignment analysis and expert contract negotiation, GSG helps credit unions secure higher program payouts, robust transitional packages, and strategic recruitment resources that strengthen long-term growth and performance.

“Credit unions don’t have time to hunt for answers. They need clarity, speed and confidence,” said Scott Jentz, Founder, President and CEO of Gateway Services Group. “We built the new site to reflect how we work: straightforward guidance, measurable value and a focus on the member. It’s a cleaner way to explore everything we offer.”
