

LevelUp Speaking Launches Dallas Intensive to Accelerate Speaker Growth and Brand Impact

DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, November 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LevelUp Speaking (Powered by SpeakrBrand) is pleased to announce the official launch of its first-ever LevelUp Speaking Intensive, taking place December 8–9, 2025, in Dallas, Texas. Designed for emerging and established speakers, the two-day live event provides a complete framework for message development, brand building, and sustainable business growth.

At its core, the LevelUp Speaking Intensive was created to close the gap between talent and traction. Participants gain hands-on guidance in messaging, positioning, and stagecraft, along with practical strategies for growing their speaking careers. Each attendee leaves with new professional content, a personalized 90-day growth plan, and connections within a community of like-minded speakers and industry leaders.

Some of the key components of the LevelUp experience include:

- Capture Content from the Stage: Attendees participate in a live Storytelling Showcase and receive professionally filmed photos and videos from their talk, providing ready-to-use brand assets for social and marketing campaigns.
- Learn Practical, Tactical Tools: The curriculum emphasizes actionable frameworks for refining a message, building a brand strategy, and creating repeatable outreach systems for consistent growth.
- Leverage AI-Driven Sales and Lead Generation: Participants learn to use tools like SpeakerDrive to identify and connect with event organizers, enabling a predictable flow of speaking opportunities.

Additionally, the Dallas speaking event will also feature a lineup of renowned experts and top voices in the speaking industry, including Scott Jeffrey Miller (8× bestselling author), Gaby Natale (3× Daytime Emmy Award-winning journalist and keynote speaker), Quinn Conyers (award-winning speaker and AT&T Dream in Black Future Maker), Alec Melman (Co-Founder and CEO of Gotham Artists), Paul Epstein (bestselling author and leadership expert), Ivy Gustafson (top speaking coach and former speakers bureau agent), and Vince Pierri (leading speaker coach).

LevelUp Speaking also offers a six-month virtual Mastermind and a series of exclusive collaborative experiences that combine connection, content creation, and strategic execution, providing a full ecosystem for speaker development.

“There’s something powerful that happens when speakers gather with the same goal—to use their voice for good,” says the LevelUp team. “LevelUp exists to harness that energy, give it structure, and turn potential into momentum.”

Registration for the Dallas event is now open at www.levelupspeaking.com/events.
