With over 30 years in the mortgage industry, Ruedy has helped thousands of Colorado homeowners navigate changing market conditions. He says the no closing cost refinance is becoming one of the smartest financial strategies for borrowers who want to take advantage of lower rates without spending thousands in upfront fees.

“You get into a lower rate with fewer closing costs — it's a no-brainer,” says Ruedy. “Homeowners can save money right away and keep more of their equity instead of paying unnecessary fees.”

Ruedy explains that while this refinance option may come with a slightly higher rate than standard programs, the long-term equity retention and immediate savings often outweigh the difference.

“Many homeowners don't realize how quickly closing costs can eat into their home's equity,” Ruedy adds. “This program helps them retain that equity, lower their rate, and reduce monthly payments — a smart move that keeps more money in their pocket.”

Ruedy and his team at The Home Loan Arranger specialize in Fort Collins mortgage refinances, cash-out refinance loans, HELOCs, and home-purchase programs designed to help borrowers maximize savings in today's market. Whether homeowners want to consolidate debt, tap into equity, or purchase a new home in Fort Collins, Ruedy's streamlined process focuses on speed, precision, and results.

"With rates holding near multi-year lows, this is the right time for Fort Collins homeowners to act," Ruedy says. "Refinancing with no lender closing costs is one of the smartest ways to save money now while preserving long-term financial strength."
