The Global Luxury Cultural Retreat Award holds particular significance, given the brand's long-standing commitment to authentic immersion and sustainability.

“We are especially honoured by the Global Cultural Retreat

Award, as sharing the beauty of Balinese culture has always been a core part of our mission,” said Goddess Retreats Founder, Chelsea Ross. “This recognition is a powerful affirmation of our efforts to celebrate and preserve the richness of Bali's heritage."

The retreat's cultural commitment is woven into every experience, from traditional healing and spiritual practices to its ethnobotanical permaculture garden and the local artisans and healers it supports. "Our cultural workshops, the local ingredients in our spa, and our permaculture garden all reflect our dedication to authentic, sustainable immersion," Chelsea added.

Founded in 2003, Goddess Retreats was the first women-only luxury surf and yoga retreats in the world designed to empower and rejuvenate women through immersive wellness and cultural journeys. It's since evolved to offer a range of specialized retreats, including Healing, Wellness, Fitness, and Padel, across two boutique locations in Ubud and Seminyak.

"To be recognized in these three categories by our guests and the global industry is the ultimate recognition of our mission," concludes Chelsea. "From day one, our goal has been to create an uplifting space where women can truly reconnect with themselves and each other."
