

"Awaji Island COSPLAY ~AWACOS~ Powered by World Cosplay Summit to be held at Nijigen no Mori on December 20, 2025

Global Cosplayers Gather at Nijigen no Mori!

AWAJI CITY, HYOGO, JAPAN, November 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The anime theme park Nijigen no Mori, located within Awaji Island Anime Park, will host a global cosplay event titled "Awaji Island COSPLAY ~AWACOS~ Powered by World Cosplay Summit" on Saturday, December 20, 2025.

This special event aims to promote cultural exchange among Japanese and international cosplayers and expand awareness of Japan's world-famous "2D content" — anime, manga, and games. The event is organized by WCS Inc., the company behind the world-renowned World Cosplay Summit, with full cooperation from Nijigen no Mori Inc.

During the event, participants can enjoy cosplay photography and interaction throughout Nijigen no Mori's immersive attractions that blend nature and technology to recreate the worlds of beloved anime and games. Popular locations such as the expansive Great Lawn, as well as attractions including Crayon Shinchan Adventure Park, NARUTO & BORUTO Shinobi-zato, Godzilla Interception Operation, and Dragon Quest Island, will all be open for cosplay photo sessions.

□About the “World Cosplay Summit”

Founded in 2003 in Nagoya, Japan, the World Cosplay Summit (WCS) is one of the world's largest cosplay events, now featuring participants from over 40 countries and regions. Each year, top cosplayers gather in Japan to compete and celebrate global pop culture, with events held in iconic Nagoya venues such as Oasis 21, Osu Shopping District, and the Aichi Arts Center.

In 2025, the event will mark its 23rd anniversary, continuing its mission of promoting international friendship and cultural exchange through the art of cosplay.
