From symptoms to solutions: a clearer pathway

Many patients first assume their breathing problems to be seasonal allergies. While allergies can be one trigger, Mr. Shakir's practices at Milton Keynes emphasises that chronic sinusitis, hidden nasal polyps or structural issues can often lie beneath the persistent symptoms and for that accurate assessment is crucial to fixing them correctly.

Mr. Shakir approaches the diagnosis of sinusitis through close clinical review and by utilising advanced diagnostic techniques to detect nasal mucosal swelling, sinus blockages and polyp disease.

ENT conditions don't only affect adults. Children commonly present with ear infections, glue ear, tonsillitis and allergic rhinitis conditions which if left to linger can impair hearing, speech and development.

best Children ENT Specialist

Why this matters now

Early referral to an ENT specialist avoids years of trouble with sprays and antibiotics, and results in avoidable complications in chronic sinus disease or hearing problems in children. Early intervention from a specialist for any allergy or for recurrent sinus infections, or for paediatric ear disease straightaway changes the child's daily life - better sleep, improved concentration, less control of symptoms, fewer GP visits and treatment goes towards benefitting the child directly.

About Mr. Adam Shakir
