of IAA*

Guided by the 2026 theme, “Redefining Global Standards of Design”, the TITAN Property Awards reflects its mission to honor projects and visionaries that elevate property design to new heights. As a benchmark for excellence, the award program celebrates achievements that set bold standards, inspire peers worldwide, and influence the core direction of global property and design.

“The theme this year is a call to see how property design continues to respond to new challenges and opportunities,” said Thomas Brandt, Spokesperson of International Awards Associate (IAA). “In 2026, we expect entries that demonstrate originality in concept and precision in execution, because recognition at TITAN is not only an achievement for the winners, but also a mark of influence within the global design industry.”

Global Community of Entrants

Over the course of its competitions, TITAN welcomes submissions from over 30 countries each year, reflecting the potential of the property industry. From visionary architects creating landmark designs to developers delivering large-scale projects, the competition demonstrates how property design and development contribute to global progress in the built environment.
